OK, as we did the exercise together, what jumped out at you?

What surprised you?

What deserves more study?

What questions did it stimulate?

If you had to sum up the scenes in heaven in 2 sentences, what would they be?

If you had to sum up the scenes on earth in 2 sentences, what would they be?

The last two chapters break the mold. How? Why?

What did you learn about the Lord Jesus Christ?

What did you learn about the angels?

What did you learn about the nation of Israel?

What did you learn about the Gentile nations?

What's the one thing that you can't get out of your mind?

Did you notice anything that the scenes in heaven have in common?

How about the scenes on earth?

If you were going to put the scenes on earth into two different groups, what would the two groups be? Give a couple of examples of a scene in each group.

Did you notice any connections between a scene in heaven and the scenes on earth that come right before and/or right after?

Based on this exercise, how would you go about constructing a chronology of events for the book of Revelation?
