

Passages that appear to call eternal security into question

Three Tests:

1. Is the passage clearly speaking to/about believers in Christ? Or unbelievers? Are they said to be one or more of the following:
 - a. Have believed in Christ as their Savior – His death for their sins, His burial, and His resurrection from the dead
 - b. Elected or chosen by God the Father
 - c. Justified: declared by God to be righteous in His eyes
 - d. Possessing eternal life
 - e. Indwelt by the Spirit

2. Is the passage talking about eternal salvation? or something else:
 - a. Practical sanctification rather than justification
 - b. Temporal deliverance
 - c. Rewards/loss of rewards
 - d. Discipline rather than loss of salvation
 - e. Pressing on in the Christian life versus turning aside

3. Does the passage state that a believer can lose any of the things that God accomplished in saving them? That the believer can or will:
- a. lose eternal life?
 - b. be under the wrath of God again?
 - c. lose his justification? Be condemned once again by God?
 - d. be taken out of Christ? Have the seal of the Spirit removed?
 - e. no longer be the son or daughter of God the Father ?
 - f. be brought from life back into death?
 - g. go to the Lake of Fire?

We will now examine a group of “warning” passages using these tests.

The passages:

Matthew 24:4-5, 11-13, 23-26

John 8:31-32, 51

Romans 11:20-22

Galatians 5:1-4

Hebrews 6:1-8

Hebrews 10: 26-39
