Psalm 72:8-20

Title: Let all nations call him blessed

As a reminder, we learned last week a few of the ways Psalm 72 has a near-term fulfillment in Solomon, and a future fulfillment in Jesus Christ.

Solomon judged rightly, and he brought peace in his time. Jesus Christ will do the same on a greater, permanent scale.

Psalm 72:8-10 talk about the dominion
the king's son will have.

Solomon had dominion over a vast swath of land: 1 Kings 4:21-26

Solomon, with all his power, did something Jesus will never do: 1 Kings 11:1-11

Jesus has dominion, too, but much greater in scope than Solomon.

Matthew 28:16-20

Philippians 2:5-11

1 Corinthians 15:24-27

Revelation 3:14-22

Psalm 72:11 says all nations will serve this person. Many served Solomon, we read earlier, but not all.

By contrast, Jesus Christ is Lord and everyone will acknowledge Him as such in a future time: Romans 14:10-12

Luke 1:41-55

Luke 2:7-14

In Psalm 72:12-14 we read that this man will 1) deliver + spare the needy and the poor and 2) redeem their soul from deceit and violence.

Luke 4:14-22

Luke 21:20-28

Galatians 3:10-15

Their blood will be precious in His sight: Psalm 116:15

Psalm 72:15-16 switches back to Solomon. Remember Queen Sheba?

1 Kings 10:1-13

1 Kings 9:24-28

Psalm 72:17 says the name of this man will endure forever. Solomon died and was buried, same with his father David.

Matthew 22:41-46

Acts 2:29-36

Hebrews 1:8-12

Revelation 21:21-27

Solomon was a picture of Christ, but a ultimately flawed man. Jesus Christ our Lord provides for our needs, he is a Deliverer, and we has dominion even now.

We serve a God that knows our needs and provides for them, including our most important one. Praise God for His sinless Son and all the blessings therein, and let His name be praised forever.
